COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT DIRECTOR

Mayor Johnson has appointed Rick Smith for the position of Community Development Director.

Rich Smith has a Bachelor's degree in Community Development and a Master's degree in City Planning. He has worked as an Environmental Analyst, Associate Planner, Planner, Assistant Director, and Director of Community Development Departments. For the past thirteen years, Rick has served as Director of Community and Economic Development for the City of Pasco. Rick is noted in the Pacific Northwest for his development of an innovative Code Enforcement Board made up of citizens. He currently serves as Chair of the Regional Revolving Loan Fund Committee and sits on the loan evaluation committee of the Franklin County PUD Rural Development Loan Fund. He is also Chair for the Greater Pasco Area Chamber of Commerce.
